

Music for Life

NewSongs School of Music in Elk Grove is committed to inspiring students to create and learn. We believe we as teachers partner with parents and students to give you the tools to let your talents shine. Students are encouraged to explore music, as well as art and drama, in traditional forms (like classical music, traditional plays, or conventional art instruction) and then make it their own by writing their own song, scripts, or free-form art.

We have been serving the Elk Grove community for nearly 8 years and we look forward to working with you!
